of State to negotiate a treaty with Canada providing for the canalization of the St. Lawrence, said that this report had been jammed through because New York State had not been alive to its needs and privileges.

He said he will support a proposal that the United States buy up the land between the Canadian border and the canal proposition goes through. Otherwise, he declared, the country would be paying half the cost of a development which would remain entirely under the control of a foreign Power. He would have the cost of the purchase of the Canadian territory offset against the British war debt to the United States.

committee on canals of the Maritime Exchange, said that the State's $200,000.-000 investment in the barge canal was being wasted because of the inadequate supply of carriers. Only 200 of the right type of freighter were in service. porcas grain shipments were consided for in quantities requiring many as this number of boats. The project constructing adequate tonnage was personally great for private capital to underste unaided, and the result was that 18 1,000,000 tons of freight yearly were like by way of the canal as against a by way of the canal as against a y average of four to six millions time ago.

e State has created this $200,000,000 " said Mr. Walsh, "and further ort is needed if the canal facilities to be fully realized. State aid it sary for the building of more but it is an investment that i bear large returns."

$20,000,000 IS SOUGHT

FOR SHIPYARD 'SAVING' One-third Is Demanded for Workers of Harriman Corp.

An action against the Emergency Fleet Corporation may be started on behalf of the employees of the Merchant Shipbuilding Corporation, who claim that large sums are due them under the vontract by which forty vessels were built during the war. House, Grossman & Vorhaus, attorneys, of 115 Broadway, have formed a protective committee for the employees, and it is their contention that there was a saving of $20,000,000 under the contract, of which the mien, in accordance with the profit sharing clause, are entitled to one-third.

The contract has not been adjusted and negotiations between the shipyard, which was formed by W. Averell Harriman, and the Government body are now in progress. Until a settlement is made, Mr. Harriman said, the amount of the "saving" cannot be known. Alonzo Tweedale, general comptroller of the fleet corporation, in a letter to the employee: attorneys said that if they were in touch with the real situation they would desist from efforts to collect fees or form any committee" for the purpose outlined. The alleged saving, he said.

The alleged saving, he said. had not materialized.
